Esquire Home Collection Announced

Esquire Home, a new line of fine furnishings and accessories from Halo that includes tailored furniture, upholstery, occasional, home décor, and rugs will premiere at High Point International Home Furnishings Market April 17th – 22nd, it was announced today by representatives of Halo and Hearst Brand Development.

The Esquire Home Collection focuses on the magazine's 77-year-old philosophy of "Man at His Best." The collection features the distressed leathers and neutral twills and tweeds common in menswear, and polished nickel finishes and black glass embellishments are meant to evoke a cool and contemporary style.
